

Police and Security News keeps law enforcement professionals informed about the latest news and information, products, services, and developments which affect policing throughout the nation.

With a complete nationwide circulation, P&SN is read by all levels of government – municipal/city, county, state, and federal agencies, including Homeland Security.

A yearly readership survey has determined an average of 4.86 readers per copy of P&SN (publisher's data: 2016-2017 audience survey, sample size of 1546). With the inclusion of bonus trade show distribution, the average number of copies per issue is 22,000 and the number of readers per issue is 106,920 (not including digital readership).

“Our Readers Are Your Buyers – Since 1984!”

P&SN's readership is comprised of middle and upper management and top administration. P&SN includes middle and upper management because of the role they play in the purchasing of products and services – initiating, specifying and recommending – and, in larger agencies, authorizing purchases for its various divisions.
